

THE VICTORIA DAILY STANDARD.

VOLUME 6.

THE DAILY STANDARD.
PUBLISHED BY
T. H. LONG & CO.

J. DeCOSMOS, Editor.

TERMS.

WEEKLY STANDARD,
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING.

TERMS.

AGENTS.

L. F. TOWNSEND, San Francisco,
No. 20 and 21 Merchant's Row, New York,
C. H. DODD, 11 Park Row, New York,
J. C. DODD, 11 Park Row, New York, RICHARD WOODS, Esq., Vancouver Island, British Columbia.

R. H. BURKE, New Westminster,
C. H. DODD, Esq., Victoria, B.C.,
A. J. DODD, Esq., Hope to Kootenay
Island, British Columbia.

A. J. DODD, Esq., 11 Clarence Street, London,
G. Street, 20 Carlton, London.

Special Agent given to Agents.

Additional Discount given to Agents.

Colonial Hotel.

The undersigned beg to inform that it is now at home and abroad that having been a long time in the Pacific Coast.

they intend in future to conduct it on the basis of a new system of management.

They also wish to state that the very best qualities of the hotel are now available.

Colonial Hotel and Restaurant

Registered Office, Columbia Street

NEW WESTMINSTER.

WINE, LIQUORS & CIGARS

Will be sold at the bar and Restaurant.

LUCAS & REDON - Proprietors,

Government Street,

VICTORIA, B. C.

SELLING OFF

To Close Business

MY ENTIRE STOCK OF

LADIES' GENTS', MISSES' AND

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

BOOTS, SHOES & GAITERS,

LEATHERS.

Shoe-finders, Lasts, Boot-trees, Shoe brushes, Blackings, &c.

ALSO.

Chambers, Drawers, Trunks, Boxes, Calicoes,

Bonches, &c. The whole of which will be Sold very Cheap for Cash.

No goods to leave the store until paid for.

JESSE COOPER,

No. 22 Yates Street, opposite Wells

Fargo & Co.

ROYAL INSURANCE

COMPANY

FIRE AND LIFE.

HEAD OFFICE, Liverpool.

Capital Two Millions Sterling (£2,000,000)

UNLIMITED

LIABILITY OF SHAREHOLDERS.

SPROUT & CO.,

AGENTS FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA.

St. Nicholas Building, Government St.

VICTORIA, B.C.

Montreal, Quebec.

Importers of Canadian Goods.

A SHIP WILL BE PLACED ON

MONTRÉAL, FOR VICTORIA, B.C.

From Montreal.

If you want an Assortment of

BOOTS & SHOES

CONSTANTLY ON HAND

of the last thirty days, have still on hand some superior stock, consisting of

DRESS GOODS,

FURS,

SEAL SKIN JACKETS,

BOKARA & CLOTH JACKETS,

VELVET MANTLES,

BROCHES & OTHER SHAWLS,

HATS, BONNETS, &c., &c.

The proprietors have determined to confine the sale for thirty days, and have removed the above mentioned goods in plain figures.

At a Still Further Reduction.

There is an excellent opportunity to CASH OUTERS.

The Goods must be cleared before the extensive alternatives now in progress can be completed.

GO TO

Harrison's News Depot

FOR THE VERY SUCCESSFUL

WINTER TRADE.

Buy a neat box of Waverly or Keene's

Woolens—Get a package of Tinted or Colored Wool Paper—all to be had at HARRIS-

SON'S.

Buy a hand-woven clothed skirt, Waverly or Keene's

Woolens—Buy a pair of Waverly or Keene's

Woolen Gloves and Drawing Pencils.

All the above articles just arrived direct from England will be had at

W. HARRISON'S

New and Stationery Store, Government Street, next to Metropolitan Building.

1877.

WANTED,

NURSERY MAID WANTED.

App't 1877.

THIS OFFICE.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

1877.

The Daily Standard

Friday, March 10th, 1873.

Editorial Sales To Day.

2,000 copies... What News... Will... Sell at Sundays 11 A.M. Victoria, Province, Vt.

and other papers.

Art Island Summary.

The Lower Drama Club gave another performance at the Drill Shed, New Westminster, last Tuesday, which elicited general applause. "The Momentum Quaker," a play by Mr. C. G. Coe, was played.

Mr. C. G. Coe will direct Mr. Armstrong for election.

The steamers Hoop and Lillooet were towed to New Westminster yesterday, from winter quarters.

The New Westminster Corporation have resolved to apply to the Government for all rates of water-taxes, from the 1st of January, 1873; also that all the leases be handed over to the municipality.

Subscriptions for the Semiahmoo road are still being sent in. A special meeting of the Town Council took place to consider the questions relating to the construction. Subscriptions from the Government, to that already appropriated, and also the diversion of the road appropriated for roads elsewhere toward the cost of the Semiahmoo road were discussed, and the member for the district proposed concurrence.

The Bishop of Columbia, accompanied by Rev. W. H. Armstrong, paid the New Westminster public school a visit on Monday last.

Messrs. Chadsay, of Sumas, have ground about 250,000 lbs. of wheat this season; the mill is closed for the present.

The New Westminster Mechanics' Institute was opened on Monday last.

The Herald believes that the sheriffs will act as Government agents throughout the Province.

Mr. O'Reilly held County Court yesterday.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THREE THOUSAND YEARS OLD.—He had seen the Chinaman read right after night by the light of a lamp, and had heard their talk of their emperors, their wars and their state affairs of hundreds and hundreds of years gone by. He had known these despised Chinese to tell early and late to save money to send home to their own country for the payment of their taxes. During his stay he would often converse with them; he had known a Chinaman to be untrue to his wife or to his heart or to decease her. He had never known a Chinaman to be untrue to his wife or to his heart although he had seen a great many instances of unfaithfulness on the part of white men during the same time.

CHINAMAN'S TROUBLE.—He was addressing the female portion of his hearers. The girls did think of it and smiled apathetically all over the room.

The lecturer continuing said he granted that John was a Pagan. "Did you ever see a Joss house?" said he, "It's a strange looking place quaint in every respect like the Chinese themselves. If you were to visit San Francisco you would find there the most remarkable and most beautiful temples erected within the city area. First, the Chinese temple or Joss house; second the Masonic Hall; and third the Jewish Synagogue." He then proceeded to describe the Joss house.

JOHN'S JOSSES.—With the prior's "I digged a grave and found no bones" standing at the door to welcome strangers who visited the temple. Old Joe was a strange looking old seated on the star surrounded with offerings from his worshippers. The offerings were oranges, bananas, oranges, lemons, limes, etc. The lecturer at one time spoke to an intelligent Chinaman on the subject of these offerings in the "Pigion English," spoken on the Pacific coast, and asked John why he had come to welcome visitors who had come to the "Good Temples" of Love, for all these foolish people were reading off the "Good Temples" of Love." Why do you bring in my old Josses?" said John. "John winked at him and said that smile that was childlike and bland" he was asked Mr. Browning, if he thought John was "fools didn't say anything, but when it came dark the priest came and said and carried away all the offerings." "And then their faith," said the lecturer, "they have another religion, and that is the one they have by day and at night, the very same men will go and sit them away and eat them, get it."

"A CHINAMAN CONVERTED.

TO GOD," continued the lecturer, "got his soul moved, when he never half suspected it; he was poor, weak, drivelling, half converted Methodist, or a dry Presbyterian."

Yet, strange it was, that with all their intelligence, their ancient history and virtuous habits, the Indian looked upon them with contempt as his own slaves.

Mr. Browning here related an interesting incident, this being on the part of the Indians. A Chinaman had been wronged and managed to reach a rock, where he was found in a perilous condition, and rescued by some Indians who took him to their tribe. He remained with them some time and finally had the audacity to ask the Chief's daughter in marriage. The old Chief drew himself up on his dignity as such an insult and refused such a degrading connection.

IN HIS FAMILY.

"A Remarkable Miracle."

GLASGOW, 5th January, 1873.

Sir—I enclose you the following extract, taken from the letter, head'd as above, to know what your learned readers have got to say to it. Is the miracle reported a real miracle?—as the writer referred to evidently believes, and expects his reader to believe if so, what have those who do not believe in miracles, to say to it? It is a well-known fact, that an impostor would say of your numerous readers please to show that it is so, and in that case do a great service to the cause of truth? This is the extract alluded to:

A most remarkable miracle, which took place last spring, has just received, after a long and patient inquest, the episcopal sanction.

AT NOVA SCOTIA.

AT NOVA SCOTIA.—Geo. P. Powell & Co. of New York, advertising agents, have published a prospectus for the use of advertisers who use country papers, and who may desire to know the relative importance of towns in the United States and the Dominion of Canada, before expending money in advertising. We are indebted to the publisher for a copy.

LAST SERVICES, NEW WESTMINSTER.—The Bishop of Columbia remains till after Easter in New Westminster. He is announced to preach a course of sermons suitable to the occasion, twice every Sunday, on Friday evenings, and every evening in Passion Week. There is daily service at Holy Trinity.

OUR COUNCIL.—On Wednesday night in addition to the business already reported the Revenue By-Law was read a second time and passed. The Water Works By-Law was read a first time, as also the by-law defining the duties of the office of Assessor and Collector.

H.M.S. TENTERIS is taking stores at Esquimalt, it is thought, for a cruise to the Sandwich Islands, and will take the Royal Marines for transfer to the Scout. The latter will sail for Panama, and the marines will cross the Isthmus for shipment to England.

THE DREDGER.—The dredger was at work early yesterday morning, dredging the harbor of Sheat Point, and it is the intention of the authorities to proceed without delay to execute this important operation with regard to the remainder of the harbor.

CENTRAL SCHOOL.—The Government favor the erection of the central boarding school at Kamloops; the Board of Education were in part, opposed to the scheme, but have withdrawn opposition.

NOT GONE.—Mr. Waldron has at the last moment decided to stay with us until Tuesday next. The company will play again on Saturday and Monday evenings next, when they leave for Portland.

MR. MATHIAS, photographic artist, was busy yesterday taking views of the Colonial Hotel and Government street. There is a good demand for views of British Columbia in the older Canadian Provinces.

Washington Territory.

Parties in Seattle are trying to negotiate a steamship company to run a line between San Francisco and the Sound.

Captain Siers left Portland on Wednesday last for California.

It is said changes will shortly be made in the offices of Governor, Surveyor General, and Collector of the port.

A newspaper entitled "The Oregonian" has just come out of the printing office in Victoria, a new newspaper being sold on the site of the old E street wharf, and things generally look flourishing. A few post offices and telegraph offices have been opened at the crossing of the Mowacha River, on the old Fraser river trail. A neat little steamer, the Rose, has just been placed on the route between this place, Semiahmoo, and the islands, connecting at San Juan with the ferries, for Port Townsend.

Mr. C. G. Coe will direct Mr. Armstrong for election.

The steamers Hoop and Lillooet were towed to New Westminster yesterday, from winter quarters.

The New Westminster Corporation have resolved to apply to the Government for all rates of water-taxes, from the 1st of January, 1873; also that all the leases be handed over to the municipality.

Subscriptions for the Semiahmoo road are still being sent in. A special meeting of the Town Council took place to consider the questions relating to the construction. Subscriptions from the Government, to that already appropriated, and also the diversion of the road appropriated for roads elsewhere toward the cost of the Semiahmoo road were discussed, and the member for the district proposed concurrence.

The Bishop of Columbia, accompanied by Rev. W. H. Armstrong, paid the New Westminster public school a visit on Monday last.

Messrs. Chadsay, of Sumas, have ground about 250,000 lbs. of wheat this season; the mill is closed for the present.

The New Westminster Mechanics' Institute was opened on Monday last.

The Herald believes that the sheriffs will act as Government agents throughout the Province.

Mr. O'Reilly held County Court yesterday.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre. Mrs. Waldron appeared in the title rôle; Mrs. Dora, and Mr. Waldron gave the accomplished actress's most interesting support in his delineation of Farmer Allan; and the two, assisted by the rare talent of the other members of the company, rendered the play an entire success. The farce which followed, "The Rough Diamond," has already been spoken of as "too good to be taken a fashion stage." Mr. Cross and Misses Joe, and Mrs. Waldron, Margery, totally disengaged; suffice it to add, that the bill prepared for the evening was one which under ordinary circumstances could scarcely fail to give satisfaction, but which when produced by a company so competent as those of Mr. Waldron's, nothing less than an ovation could await the fair beneficiaria of the evening at the fall of the curtain.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Last night, one of the most brilliant assemblies of the theatrical season followed the performance of the forenoon of the Waldron Dramatic Company. The fact that so popular an actress as Mrs. Waldron had sacrificed herself as the beneficiaria for the evening, doubtless gave an additional zest to the entertainment, but the programme, which included a drama founded upon the touching and beautiful story of "The Rough Diamond," was alone sufficient to entice an enthusiastic audience within the walls of the theatre.

Miscellaneous Advertisements.

The Standard LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.
GOVERNOR.
HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BUCKINGHAM AND QUEENSBURY, K. G.
DEPUTY-GOVERNOR.
THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF DALKEITH, M. P.
THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF STAFFORD, K. B.
PRINCIPAL OFFICES,
2 & 3 George Street, Edinburgh
26 King William Street, London,
10 Upper Sackville Street, Dublin,
MANAGER AND ACTUARY.
Wm. Thomas Thompson, F. R. S.
COLONIAL & FOREIGN SECRETARY.
D. CLIFFORD GREGORY.

Total amount of invested funds
£24,096,589 19 9.

Annual Revenue, £703,450 19 9.

ROBERT BURNABY, Agent
Victoria, B.C.

IMPERIAL Life Insurance Company

OLD BROAD STREET & 10 PALL MALL, LONDON.

INCORPORATED 1803.
FOR INSURING HOUSES & OTHER PROPERTY
Buildings, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, Manufacturing or Farming Stock, Ships in Port or at Sea, Vessels, &c., in the British Colonies, Ships bound from England, Barges and other vessels on navigable rivers and Canals, and goods on board such Vessels, Ships, &c., in the British Colonies and Islands, and in Foreign Countries.

FROM LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE.

Subscribed and Invested Capital
One Million Six Hundred Thousand Pounds.

RISKS ACCEPTED AT CURRENT RATES OF PREMIUM.
WELCH, RITCHET & CO.
Agents for British Columbia and Washington Territory.

In the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

GENERAL ORDER.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Supreme Court will sit in Bar, for the hearing of all motions, arguments, appeals, and other matters coming before the Court in Bar, at the Supreme Court Room in the City of Victoria, for the following terms, on the days hereinafter mentioned, namely:

For Hilary Term from the 15th to 25th February;

for Easter Term from the 15th to 25th April;

For Michaelmas Term from the 15th to 25th November.

There will be no sitting in Bar, on Trinity Term.

In case any of the days of the dates named for the beginning or ending of the Terms should fall on a Sunday or Public Holiday, the Term will begin or end on the next following day.

(MATT. B. BROWN, C. J.
HENRY P. PELLIVAN GRAY, J.
DATED VICTORIA, January 24th, 1872. 107.)

Arrears of Real Estate Tax,
Vancouver Island.

NOTICE is hereby given, that unless the Arrears of Taxes, and same due and payable on Real Estate in Vancouver Island, in the Province of British Columbia, Tax Act respectively mentioned in the "The Tax Repeal Ordinance, 1867," are paid at the Treasury, James Bay, on or before the 15th day of March next, proceedings will at once be taken to recover the same in accordance with the Acts and Ordinances in that behalf provided.

Dated 23rd day of January, 1873.

JOHN ABLE,
Provincial Secretary

Ja 28

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

FOR SALE.

IN THE WELL BUILT BUNGALOW

FAVORITE

120 Foot Building, Coppered and Copper-tiled.

For further particulars apply to

J. W. McNAUL

At the H. B. Co.'s Office.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

FRANCIS BARNARD, M.D.

SURGEON DENTIST.

DR. BARNARD has in his office

NOTE PAPER & ENVELOPES

Fancy and Ornamental, Plain and Cope, in Boxes.

Packages and Quantities to Suit.

PLAIN & FANCY MOURNING STYLES.

Mourning Bands, Neck Bands, Pocket Books, Handkerchiefs, Purse, &c., &c.

Bo. 10, Copy Books, Exercises, Writing Books, &c.

STEREOPHONIC, Spasmodic, Guillot, Orr, Pickwick and Waverly.

ALMANACS—Bills, Calendars, Letters, Business and General Correspondence.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

T. SMITH

BOOMERANG INN

LANGLEY ALLEY, Victoria.

McMoore's—The Best Quality of

Wines and Liquors

and the Finest Brands of

CIGARS,

Will always be on hand at the Bar.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

L. P. FISHER,

ADVERTISING AGENT,

BOOKS TO 1000 Vols.

Merchants' Exchange,

CALIFORNIA STREET,

SAN FRANCISCO.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

JOHN WILSON,

THE "GARRICK'S HEAD" INN

BASTION STREET.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

Sproat & Co.,

AGENTS FOR THE Royal Insurance Co.,

LIVERPOOL,

Wharf Street.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

THE RETREAT SALOON.

JOS. WRIGLESWORTH, Proprietor.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

W. LUSH,

Proprietor.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

THE TEN-PIN SALOON.

107

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

French Benevolent Society

Wounded in Victoria, B.C., Feb. 24, 1860.

THE POSITION OF THE ABOVE SOCIETY at the end of 1871 is compared with 1871, as follows:

1871.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1872.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1873.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1874.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1875.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1876.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1877.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1878.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1879.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1880.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1881.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1882.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1883.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1884.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1885.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1886.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1887.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1888.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1889.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture

1890.—

Homes and Garden

Land

Furniture